

Right to Reasonable Accommodation: Part Two

Judi's Room Discussion

DATE: Wednesday, November 3

6:00-8:00 EST, 4-6 MT, 3-5 PT

PLACE: Judi's Room (Virtual)

Last month, we found it challenging to do justice to all of the issues and concerns round this topic. Reasonable accommodations involves a wide range of laws, policies and institutions: workplaces, classrooms, prisons, hospitals, and other congregate facilities. Therefore this topic is back by popular demand with most of the same presenters, followed by a public discussion facilitated by Jim Gottstein.

Panelists:

Kenna Chic

Kathy Flaherty

Robin Ann Jones

Judi's Room is a monthly event co-hosted by MindFreedom International and 'I Love You, Lead On!' It is named after Judi Chamberlin, a well known human rights activist, for the purpose of exploring overlapping values held by CSX (consumers/survivors/ex-patients) and members of the disabilities rights community.
