

Right to Reasonable Accommodation

Judi's Room Discussion

DATE: Wednesday, October 6

6:00-8:00 EST, 4-6 MT, 3-5 PT

PLACE: Judi's Room (Virtual)

Who is eligible for reasonable accommodations? What is a reasonable accommodation and how do you get it? What if you have an invisible disability? What does an educator, program manager/employer need to know when granting accommodation? Is your privacy protected? What can you do if your rights are denied? Do you still have rights if you live in a congregate setting, like a prison, psychiatric facility, or homeless shelter? These questions and a number of others will be addressed by our distinguished panel followed by a discussion facilitated by Jim Gottstein.

Panelists:

Andy Imparato

Kenna Chic

Kathy Flaherty

Robin Ann Jones

Judi's Room is a monthly event co-hosted by MindFreedom International and 'I Love You, Lead On!' It is named after Judi Chamberlin, a well known human rights activist, for the purpose of exploring overlapping values held by CSX (consumers/survivors/ex-patients) and members of the disabilities rights community.
