

Keris Myrick, M.B.A., M.S., Ph.D.

Ms. Myrick is the podcast developer and host of 'Unapologetically Black Unicorns'

Ms. Myrick was formerly the Chief of Peer and Allied Health Professions for the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health and has served as the Director of the Office of Consumer Affairs for the Center for Mental Health Services (CMHS) of the United States Health and Human Services' Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) and was the Board President of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI).

Ms. Myrick is a leading mental health advocate and executive, known for her innovative and inclusive approach to mental health reform and the public disclosure of her personal story (as featured in the New York Times series: Lives Restored). Ms. Myrick has over 15 years of experience in mental health services innovations, transformation, and peer workforce development. She is known for her collaborative style and innovative "whole person" approach to mental health. Myrick serves on the board of Disability Rights California and is a Co-Editor of the Journal of Psychiatric Services "Lived Experience and Leadership" column. Ms. Myrick has a MS in organizational psychology from the California School of Professional Psychology of Alliant International University and an MBA from Case Western University's Weatherhead School of Management.