

Free Public Forum by Opal Network

Mental Health Activist Celia Brown from New York City.

Special visitor CELIA BROWN from New York City is a psychiatric survivor and a caring leader in the international mental health consumer/survivor movement.

Celia helped pioneer mental health peer support in NYC. She has led a team of mental health advocates into the United Nations, and trained activists in Ghana. Celia is board president of MindFreedom International, and is visiting Eugene for the first time.

Please welcome and learn from Celia Brown at this free gathering.

Date: Monday, 15 Oct. 2012

Time: 3 pm to 4:30 pm

Where: Eugene Public Library
Bascom-Tykeson Room
100 W. 10th Ave., Eugene

Everyone is welcome! Free refreshments.

Mental health consumers and psychiatric survivors are especially invited to attend!

The Opal Network is a nonprofit Lane County coalition founded in 2007 to support the empowerment, voice and self-determination mental health service clients.

This free quarterly public forum is named for the Lane County author Opal Whiteley [1897-1992] who was confined for nearly 50 years in a psychiatric institution.
