

May Day for Ray!

Protest the Forced Electroshock of Ray Sandford!

When: Friday, 1 May 2009 • 10 am to 2 pm
(news conference at 11 am).

Where: State Capitol Rotunda, St. Paul, Minnesota

Join with MindFreedom International to peacefully protest the ongoing forced outpatient electroshock of Ray Sandford of Minnesota. Speak out for empowerment and alternatives for mental health consumers and psychiatric survivors!

Speakers include:

- David W. Oaks, MindFreedom Director, from Oregon.
- Louisa Bouta, long-time psychiatric rights activist.
- Al Galves, PhD, psychologist, mental health consumer, from New Mexico.
- Daryl Trones, mental health activist.
- David Culver, disability advocate.
- Public speak out and more!

For more information about the Ray Sandford Campaign including alerts, media coverage and Frequently Asked Questions, see:

www.mindfreedom.org/ray

Sponsored by: MindFreedom International, an independent nonprofit coalition working for human rights and alternatives in mental health. Endorsed by the Minnesota Network of Mental Health Consumers/Psychiatric Survivors.

phone: (541) 345-9106 e-mail: action@mindfreedom.org

Email for info on other Ray Campaign events:

- Saturday, 2 May: Campaign strategy workshop on winning human rights in mental health.
- Sunday, 3 May: Street theater to leaflet at the enormous May Day Parade. Doctor outfit provided, no experience required.

